

Contents

Introduction	vii
Rizal the Realist, and Bonifacio, the Idealist Claro M. Recto	1
The Return of the Native Teodoro M. Locsin	22
Some Challenges to our Republic Encarnacion M. Alzona	32
Imagination and Asian Reality Carlos P. Romulo	41
Rizal as a Liberal; Bonifacio as a Democrat Leon Ma. Guerrero	49
Democracy and Liberty Salvador de Madariaga	61
Rizal's Continuing Challenge Jose W. Diokno	70
The Basic Problem We Face Lorenzo M. Tañada	83
Rizal at EDSA Raul S. Manglapus	90
Dichotomy or Convergence in History Alfredo T. Morales	97
Four Stages in Jose Rizal's Thinking Concerning Education Miguel A. Bernad	104

A Larger Rizal in a Global Setting Napoleon G. Rama	126
Imaging the Nation Onofre D. Corpuz	141
The Human Rights Legacy of Jose Rizal Sedfrey A. Ordoñez	152
Some Reflections on Peace Rodrigo D. Perez	157
Rizal and the Rule of Law Marcelo B. Fernan	163
Rizal and the Literature of the Left Elmer A. Ordoñez	168
Ang Kritikang Pampanitikan ni Jose Rizal Isagani R. Cruz	180
The Bright Consummate Flower of all Liberty Isagani A. Cruz	208
A Journey to Revolution and Freedom F. Sionil José	211
My PEN Lecture Eugenia Duran Apostol	218
PEN 50th Anniversary Lecture Jovito R. Salonga	224
Lecturers	233